A South Carolina native and history buff, Millie has spent countless hours exploring the rich historical relics of her home state. She has come across many story ideas by taking less-traveled paths throughout the South.

Her love of the complex and compelling history of the South is expressed in her writing.

Gary Fearon, Creative Director of Southern Writers Magazine says:

"Millie West combines smooth writing with evocative settings to create distinctly Southern storytelling. We were proud to feature The Cast Net in Southern Writers Magazine, and Catherine's Cross was chosen a "Southern Writers Must Read" by other authors as quickly as it was released."

A graduate of the University of South Carolina, Millie West has a background in aviation, as well as in real estate. She resides with her family near Columbia, South Carolina.
